Democratic Address of the West Virginia Convention.

To the People of West Virginia:

We invite your attention to a review of the general political situation, its evils, and their remedy. Since 1861 the harmony of this nation has been sadly disturbed. For four years of the intervening time, the interruption of peaceful relations was due to a state of war. The practical disunion existing since 1865 is referable to a course of Congressional action, wicked in motive, illegal in character, and ruinous in result. While the war for the Union was in progress, its successful issue was anticipated as the guaranty of prompt reunion and permanent peace. Such a consummation was the aim of patriotic efforts in the field, the object of solemn pledges in the halls of Congress, and the confident expectation of the masses of the people. The war has long since ended. The rebellion has long since been crushed. Every obstacle placed by Southern movement in the way of the nation's unity has long since been removed. Nevertheless, disappointment waits upon the people's wish. The pledges of Congress have been repudiated. The triumphs of our armies have been neutralized, and the purposes of the brave men who secured them have been shamefully defeated. A dissolution more disastrous than that now existing between the Southern States and the Federal government could scarcely have been brought about by the success of the rebellion. A condition of affairs so much at variance with the wishes and interest of the people of our entire country demands a reference to the acts and aims of those who produce it.

CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION.

For more than two years the Southern States have desired to renew their old relations to the government. Congress has constantly prevented that resumption. They are entitled to be restored upon the basis of the federal constitution. Congress has confessedly thrown aside that instrument, and obstructed restoration with terms and conditions of its own prescribing. Affecting to desire the perpetuity of the Republic, it has made a deadly assault upon republican institutions. Professing to aim at the salvation of the Union, it has wrought the destruction of ten of the States. The right of each State to regulate its own internal affairs, enfranchise its own voters, and choose its own rulers and law-makers, is as sacred as our constitution, and as indestructible as our government. Without it republican liberty is worthless, for when the people cease to be free citizens of the States they become the subjects of unlimited and irresponsible federal power. When Congress abolished the local government of the South, it violated a vital principle in our system. When it erected military establishments in their stead, it introduced the most abominable features of despotism. In further pursuance of its purposes, Congress has thrown the political power of the South into negro hands. To assure this result, it has disfranchised the white population by hundreds of thousands. Enfranchising the blacks, it has made voters of the ignorant, vicious and the brutal; legislators of those who regard liberty as license, and law as the instrument of revenge; and rulers of a class whose ideas of government, like their notions of religion, tend directly and inevitably to barbarism.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND ITS RESULTS.

Having given the negro the right to vote and the power to rule, Congress confesses his incompetency for either by insisting that the bayonet of the soldier, the disfranchisement of the citizen, and the supervision of the Freedmen's Bureau are necessary to sustain him in his new relations. By such declarations the dominant party would justify the continuance of military despotism erected within the Southern States. Before we sanction this iniquity, let us examine its results. It found civil governments in successful operation: it abolished those governments, and made the will of brigadier generals supreme for all purposes. Southern elections are ordered, supervised and approved or set aside by district commanders. Southern justice is what the bayonet may provide. Southern law is what the sword may decree. Southern peace is the patient submission of a conquered people; a peace threatened by impending negro insurrections, which white seditionists are inciting, and liable at any moment to disappear before the terrible tumult of social anarchy. The military government found business reviving, and enterprise struggling to repair the ravages of the war. They abolished labor, and offered army rations as a premium on negro idleness. The country ceased to produce, and trade and commerce with other sections perished. Capital left a land which promised soon to be given over to confiscation. General poverty followed the encouraged indolence of the laboring classes. Actual and almost universal destitution exists among the people; the unhappy victims of Congressional cruelty must become pensioners upon national charity or perish from starvation. Hordes of thriftless and discontented negroes, passionate almost to brutality, induced to vice by idleness, incited to violence by evil counsellors, fed and pampered at the public cost, with a great army for their protection, roam at will throughout the land upon a mission of evil, carrying dismay to the hearts of helplessness and innocence, and shocking civilization with the worst of nameless crimes. Such is the condition of the South. A military despotism is over her people. The hand of lawless violence threatens them. Desolation reigns on every hand. About them are the graves of their countless dead. The past is strewn with the wreck of their greatness. Present suffering surrounds them. Their future is thick with peril and dark with gathering misfortune. The foes of the nation are at her feet. Broken in spirit, stripped of fortune, wasted, ragged, wretched and ruined, their situation invokes the magnanimity of kindred manhood and appeals to the generous mercy of a noble enemy.

DISTRESS AT THE SOUTH PRODUCES PROSTRATION AT THE NORTH.

The evil influence of bayonet reconstruction is not confined to the South. The entire country feels it. Northern factories are silent because Southern pockets are empty. Western granaries and storehouses are full, but poverty possesses their ancient market, and their former buyers are now begging bread. A commercial crash is imminent and business stands still and trembles at the prospect. The manufacturing interests of the nation are crippled and almost crushed. The spindle is motionless; the shuttle is silent; the forge and the furnace are deserted; the workshop is vacant; the mill is closed. The hands of the artisan are unemployed and empty; his children are starving, homeless and in rags. The impoverishment of the South throws the entire burden of taxation upon the North and West. The Southern States can render no assistance while the government grinds them with an iron heel. If their people shared its benefits they would be impelled to productive ability. As they partake only of its severities, they could not support it if they would, and so long as it oppresses them, if they are fit to be freedmen, they would not support it if they could.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PURPOSE.

The declarations of leading Republicans in Congress leave no room to doubt that the action of that body has been taken with reference to the unity of the Radical party, rather than the unity of the American Republic. The National Legislature has become a mere machine for the manufacture of radical majorities. Its material is the worst and lowest class of humanity, barely rescued from the brutality of the savage state by contact with civilization. A system which is based upon negro stupidity, supported by bayonets and designed to secure partisan triumphs through the enslavement of men of our own race, may be instituted here through force and fraud, but if it can endure in this land the American people have learned liberty to no purpose and well deserve to be taught its value under the stern tutelage of tyranny which awaits them in the future of radical supremacy.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

In its management of our financial affairs, the dominant party has enacted the grossest folly and injustice. Repeated contractions of the currency have caused incalculable commercial disasters. A still more dangerous measure of contraction is now proposed in the Senate, by which the legal tenders are to be withdrawn from circulation and replaced by interest bearing bonds. If property and business do not enter an effective protest, the results will be little short of general ruin.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

The national debt amounts to $2,500,000,000. It cost the holders $1,250,000,000. The party in power would pay it in gold, dollar for dollar. They would give to the bondholders a currency different from and better than that used by the people. Specie for the money lenders and paper for the masses is the end of their financial policy. A discrimination so palpable and unfair is an insult to the popular sense of justice. By the terms of the act of issue, greenbacks are made legal tender for all debts, public and private, except duties on imports and interest on the public debt. Even the soldiers of the Republic accepted paper as the price of their toils and hardships. Is the patriotism of cash more valuable than the public devotion, which fights and bleeds, and dies? Labor receives its wages in paper; the products of the farm, the goods of the merchant, professional fees, all prices and values among the people, are paid in paper. If that kind of money is good for the masses, good to buy all things, from the sweat of labor to the blood of valor, why should it not suffice for the redemption of the Federal securities?

EXEMPTION OF THE BONDS.

Under Radical management, the bonds are exempt from taxation. Receiving from the government the same protection with their property, they pay not a dollar to its support. Such exclusive privilege establishes an aristocracy of money in the midst of a Republic of labor. Toil is taxed; bonds are exempt. Toil produces; bonds consume. Toil builds our public improvements; bondholders enjoy their benefits at no cost. Toil supports our courts, pays our legislators, and defrays the general expenses of the government; bondholders partake of the blessings of all and contribute to the sustenance of none. A policy which makes labor so completely tributary to capital is anti-republican in its effect upon the masses. We greatly mistake the temper of the people if they do not demand that this wrong be promptly righted by such repeals and enactments as will compel all property alike to share the burdens of taxation.

THE REVENUE SYSTEM.

Radicalism derives the bulk of the Federal revenue from home productions and the necessaries of life. Over sixteen thousand articles, including almost everything that supports life or lightens labor, are now the subjects of taxation. Hence the great disparity between wages and the cost of living. Frauds upon the revenue are another characteristic of the present system. The laws are evaded, the officers are bribed; the country is robbed. Over one hundred millions of dollars were lost last year through downright villainy, and the deficiencies of wealthy knaves must be made good by toiling honesty.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

A large portion of the taxes now raised is applied to worse than useless purposes. The Freedmen's Bureau costs twelve millions annually, a sum equal to the entire yearly expense of the government under some of the earlier administrations. That institution feeds, clothes and supports a host of malignant Southern haters, negro fanatics and greedy adventurers, backed by the federal army. It has done more to breed bitterness and discontent among the Southern people than the war itself. The military establishments at the South are another kind of useless and extravagant expenditure. It is costing from sixty to one hundred millions annually.—High Radical authority estimates that it will take ten years to reconstruct the South by the present process. The lowest possible amount for which this partisan enterprise can be completed will be eight hundred millions of dollars. Are the people of this nation to be impoverished, in order that the days of niggerism and fanaticism may be long in the land? Are the masses of the country to be mercilessly taxed, robbed and ruined, in order that corruption may prosper, love of power be satisfied, and the supremacy of Radicalism be assured? We look for such a response to these questions as will wipe out the abominations of the bayonet, restore civil and constitutional governments to the South, exclude the African element from the sphere of politics, and re-establish the American Union upon the ancient foundations of equal justice and popular affection.

A REMEDY POSSIBLE.

Let us recur to the remedy for the manifold wrongs to which we have referred. The reconstruction question, whatever difficulties it may present to bitter partisans, is capable of a safe and easy adjustment through the exercise of an honest and liberal patriotism. The simple application of the principles of the Federal Constitution will remove every obstacle and effect a peaceful, permanent, and satisfactory settlement. If that instrument possesses the perfection with which every lover of his country invests it, it will not be found wanting at the critical juncture. The Constitution which has blessed the people with liberty and crowned this land with greatness will not now prove inadequate to the designs of its authority and leave the vital interests of the Union at the mercy of rude chances and political passions. Let its provisions be applied, and representatives of the South, elected by the only qualified voters of that section, will take their seats in Congress, subject only to the condition imposed upon members from other parts of the land; the natural relations between the Southern States and the General Government will be resumed, and the Union of the States, triumphantly restored, will return in form, in fact, and freedom to the original glory of her first and best estate. The restoration of the South will open the way to great financial relief. When her people are relieved of the domination of the bayonets and the blacks, they will be encouraged to productive pursuits; general prosperity will revive their palsied energies, and their assistance will be happily felt in removing the great burden of debt which now impedes the national progress. The costly national nuisance, the Freedmen's Bureau, will be abolished, and common sense having mastered the situation will decree that negroes, like white men, must either work or starve. The expensive Southern military establishment will be acknowledged unnecessary, and with their disappearance tax-payers will thank God and take courage. A fair taxation of the Federal securities will yield many millions of revenue. The national banks suggest another opportunity of retrenchment. They own between three and four hundred millions in Federal bonds, upon which they draw interest. These bonds are deposited with the Government, and for every $100,000 so deposited, they receive $90,000 in national bank notes. These notes constitute their circulation, and with them they carry on the business, and earn the profits of banking proper. The interest accruing on their deposited bonds is so much premium paid them, in addition to the regular earnings of their business. They receive the benefit of just ninety per cent. more capital than they have invested, and this gratuitous premium comes from the pockets of the people. Justice requires that this sum, amounting to between twenty and thirty millions annually, be saved to the public. The simple process of recalling the national bank notes and substituting for the bonds legal tenders as banking currency will effect the needed result, and another sinkhole for the earnings of laborers will be effectually stopped. In the matter of revenue, fewer articles could be taxed, and through a more perfect and more honest mode of assessment and collection, much larger returns could be realized. Congressional extravagance and corruption should be reformed. Investigating committees should be abolished. Land grants and railroad swindles should be abandoned. The Indian wars, like the last, should be avoided. Territorial purchases should be suspended. Countless other modes of waste and fraud could be corrected, and a portion of the savings set aside for the final redemption of the debt. A sinking fund for this purpose, made up of bond taxation, the premium paid the national banks and the money wasted in Africanizing the South, would redeem every dollar of the debt in less than twenty years. The way to this desired end could be opened by the substitution of legal tenders for the bonds as rapidly as may be consistent with safety. Millions now paid in interest would thus be economized, and, with the aid of a restored and producing South, the end of our financial troubles would speedily approach.

CONCLUSION.

Having thus attempted to set forth your wrongs, and the possibility of a remedy, we now appeal to you to work out the needed reformation. Whatever evils may result from bad government, the people are the sufferers. Whatever reforms are effected must be brought about by and through the people themselves. The people have it in their power to remove the giant iniquities whose shadows darken the land. They have but to speak, and the enemies of their peace would be powerless, the dignity of the constitution and the laws will be vindicated, and their now imperilled country rescued from impending danger, purified and strengthened by its trials, will resume its majestic march in the paths of greatness, happiness and freedom. A movement has been inaugurated in this city for the organization of the friends of law and order and honest government, as against the forces of Radicalism in West Virginia. The movement will extend to every county; it will find co-operation in every township and school district in the State. We invite and urge you to join hands in the great work of political redemption.

Other States have taken the lead and are already enjoying the first fruits of victory. From Connecticut to California, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the people have interchanged the tidings of deliverance, and both oceans have heard their wild shout of gladness and triumph. The Central States of Ohio and Pennsylvania have responded with glorious deeds that yet thrill the nation. The Empire State has arisen with a mighty proclamation for the right, and the manifestation of her power, like the restless march of a conquering host, points out the path of destiny and bids the nation follow. Already we hear the footsteps of approaching political revolution. It is advancing with an energy that gives assurance of its triumphant progress even unto the end.—Let the people of Virginia fall in with the hosts that move to the rescue of our government and its institutions. While others are fighting and triumphing, let them, too, participate in the struggle and contribute to the result. We invoke your aid in your own behalf, in behalf of good government, and the attendant blessings of justice, liberty and progress. Unite for the restoration of your lost prosperity. Labor for the overthrow of organized fanaticism, corruption and folly. Act, act, act for the sake of peace, Union, freedom and humanity.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoints a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

Raleigh, Sunday, March 15, 1868.

FOR GOVERNOR:

THOMAS S. ASHE,

Of Anson.

For Lieutenant Governor:

EDWARD D. HALL.

of New Hanover.

We run up to our mast-head to-day, as the candidate of the White Man's party for the office of Governor of North Carolina, the name of the Hon. Thomas S. Ashe, of Anson. In so doing we are confident that we speak truly, when we say that this nomination, made yesterday by the State Executive Committee, will meet the hearty endorsement and command the support of every citizen of the State, who has the weal of the good old Commonwealth at heart. Mr. Ashe is a gentleman of eminent abilities and irreproachable private character. With an intellect thoroughly disciplined by long and systematic training, and a heart full of the generous sympathies and ennobling principles of the true gentleman, we can confidently and proudly present him to our readers as one in every way worthy of their regard and support. He is an able and forcible debater, and aided by the brilliant array of talent which appears upon our list of canvassers, sustained by the thought that he is the champion of the virtue and the intelligence of our people in this great contest for white supremacy and civil liberty, we believe that he will bear the banner in a manner worthy of the honored name he bears and worthy of the cause whose representative he has been made by the suffrage of the distinguished gentlemen of the Committee.

We earnestly and solemnly exhort every son of the old State to give to Thomas S. Ashe his most earnest assistance in this crisis. He deserves, richly deserves your confidence; and his success, in this campaign, depends upon the zeal and energy you shall exhibit in promoting his election. Loved and revered by those who know him, you can ask no higher endorsement than that given by the unanimity with which his selection for the high trust committed into his keeping was made.

Let us immediately bestir ourselves to secure his election. We can defeat these Radical schemers against our peace and honor. If we value the future of our loved ones, our State and country, we must vanquish them. From this day forward let our watchword be Ashe and Hall, and a white man's government for a white man's country.

The New York World, of Wednesday, while acknowledging the folly of making predictions, nevertheless ventures one to the effect that the President will not be deposed. The reasons of the World are that the Senate, although willing to procrastinate the trial until after the Presidential election, can not be brought to forswear itself and convict upon the flimsy charges trumped up by the House of Representatives against the President. The Chief Justice, also, is an impediment in the way of Mr. Johnson's conviction, since he has nothing to gain by his deposition, and will lose reputation and character by any exhibition of partiality or partisanship.

The World argues against the probability of impeachment upon the ground that the action of the Senate in the passage of the resolution censuring Mr. Johnson for the removal of Stanton, was a confession by that body that his conduct, in the matter, was not a high crime or misdemeanor within the purview of that clause of the Constitution providing for impeachment.

If the removal of Stanton had been either the one or the other of these things, the Senate would have been estopped from taking any proceeding in the matter until the House had formally preferred charges against the President.

For these reasons the World concludes that Mr. Johnson will not be deposed, but deems it probable that the trial will be prolonged by the presentation of other articles under a privilege reserved, which will require the filing of new answers. In that way it is possible to extend the trial beyond November, when it loses all of its importance save as to the character of Mr. Johnson.

"Down with the Constitution," should be the battle cry of the white men.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE INTEREST ON THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the first General Assembly that shall be convened under the provisions of the Constitution framed by this body, be, and the same is, hereby directed to make the following provisions for the payment of the interest upon the public debt.

Sec. 2. It shall provide for the payment in cash of the interest falling due on and after the first day of January, 1869, upon that portion of the bonds of the State which are dated prior to May 20th, 1861.

Sec. 3. It shall provide for the payment in cash of the interest falling due on and after the first day of July, 1869, upon that portion of the bonds of the State which are dated on and after January 1st, 1866.

Sec. 4. It shall provide for funding all such coupons upon the above specified classes of bonds as are now due, or which may become due prior to the time when the payment of interest shall be resumed as above directed. And for such purpose the General Assembly shall authorize the issue of bonds of the State, bearing six per cent interest, which shall be given at par in exchange for such coupons as are now due or may become due prior to the time when such resumption of the payment of interest shall take place.

Sec. 5. This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

We extract from the columns of our sterling cotemporary, the Petersburg Index, the following eloquent and generous tribute to the white men of our mother State. We earnestly entreat every North Carolinian in principle, as well as by birth, to endeavor by increased exertion to deserve the high encomiums paid them by our Virginia exchange:

All honor to the Conservatives of North Carolina.

They set us an example which we must hasten to imitate. Organized, equipped and in the field, they have thrown off the torper of despondency, the listlessness of indifference, the paralysis of dejection, and entered into the contest with a spirit which is itself a harbinger of success.

"True lightwood at heart," it is but fitting that North Carolina should be the first to rekindle the torch of civil liberty in the South. She has flamed up in the gloom of our night a pillar of fire, a beacon to guide, a light to cheer.

God bless her! From the battle of the Wilderness, where her sons made themselves a wall of defence for Virginia, through all the fierce struggles along the line where they were a "tide of fiery valor rolling on the foe," to the fortifications around Petersburg, where they withstood so long the desperate assaults of the Federal horde and shielded our hearths and homes from the footstep of the invader, she proved herself among the first in war.

We hail her rising star, the first in peace, and every sentiment of honor and gratitude, every memory of the past, makes her, of all our sister States, the first in the heart of Virginia.—Petersburg Index.

The inconsistency between Radical professions of peculiar friendship for the negro, and Radical conduct towards the race, has been so frequently demonstrated by facts, that only those who will not, do not see it. We have another and a Northern exhibition to add to that recently given to the negro delegation from South Carolina, who were informed by prominent Radical members of Congress that Congressmen of their race were not wanted in Washington.

The legislature of Pennsylvania—a Radical body—has had the question of negro suffrage under debate. A vote was taken on Tuesday evening last, and from the vote it appeared that of 106 votes cast, only 13 of those were in favor of the grant of the privilege, and yet the representatives of Pennsylvania upon the floor of Congress, vote steadily for all such measures as promise to force upon the people of the South the infamous dogma, which their constituencies refuse for themselves. Such is Radical consistency! How long, O Lord!

FIFTY-SECOND DAY.

MORNING PERFORMANCE.

FRIDAY, March 13.

Candler, the Buncombe brat, called up his ordinance, repealing the general amnesty act passed by the Legislature of 1866, at the same time moving the previous question.

Capt. Durham protesting against the call of the previous question, without permitting the subject to be discussed, the puling infant withdrew his call.

The ordinance was then read, when Forkner moved to amend by striking out the words "and declared null and void."

Mr. Hodnett—I sincerely hope that the act will not be repealed. It was passed to give peace and quiet to the country, and I trust that it will not be repealed, merely to gratify party malice.

Capt. Durham—This act does not grant amnesty for crimes committed outside of the line of military duty. It does not screen private murders and other crimes, but when a private soldier or an inferior officer acted under orders, it very properly protects him; for, had he refused to obey orders, he would have rendered himself liable to court martial and punishment.

I do not oppose this ordinance on partisan grounds; I oppose it for the reason that it will engender turmoil and strife throughout the entire Western portion of the State. I know that outrages have been committed on both sides, but do gentlemen on this floor, who have friends that have suffered, propose to repeal this act, simply because they wish to gratify private malice and revenge? I warn you gentlemen, in time, that if this constitution is adopted, and you repeal this amnesty act, you will inaugurate scenes of violence and bloodshed in many Western counties. Let the past be forgotten, and all will be well.

The question then recurring on Forkner's amendment, Capt. Durham called for the ayes and noes. The call was sustained and resulted ayes 82, noes 10.

The question next recurred upon the ordinance as amended.

The ayes and noes were called, resulting thusly:

Ayes—Messrs. Abbot, Andrews, Ashley, Aydlott, Benbow, Blume, Bryan, Carey, nigger, Carter, Candler, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, nigger, Forkner, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, nigger, George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Gully, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, nigger, Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Halifax, nigger, Heaton, Highsmith, nigger, Hobbs, Hofflin, Hollowell, Hood, nigger, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, nigger, Logan, Mann, May, Mayo, nigger, Marshall, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Newsom, Parks, Petree, Pierson, nigger, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Rhodes, Robbins, nigger, Rose, Smith, Stillwell, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Watts, Williamson, nigger.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the committee of 17, upon an ordinance providing for the payment of the interest on the public debt, was taken up.

The report recommended its passoge, with several amendments.

The ordinance was read, when

Mr. Hodnett said that he would war with that ordinance while a shot remained in his locker. He pronounced and denounced it as a swindling scheme to benefit Wall street, introduced by political carpet-baggers from Yankee-land who represented nigger constituencies.

This philippic created a stir among the monkies. They began to gibber and chatter among themselves, and to ask Mr. Hodnett insulting questions.

Capt. Durham remarked in his Plato-nic style that that was their usual manner of treating the Conservative gentlemen of the body, but, said he, if you suppose for a single moment, that we are to be intimidated or demoralized by your bravado, you are immensely mistaken, and you may understand now, that we shall not permit in this Hall, or anywhere you please, a venerable, gray-haired gentleman to be brow-beaten and insulted.

Mr. Hodnett—I came here an independent candidate, and have acted independently, and shall continue to do so. I warn you now, that when this thing comes up again, I shall prove by a chain of evidence, that this is a swindling scheme, gotten up in the interest of Wall street exclusively.

The ordinance was ordered to be printed, and made the special order for 10½, A. M., to-morrow.

Ready Relief Rodman, then called up his ordinance, providing for the authenticity of ordinances, resolutions, &c., passed by this convention.

Ordinance read and adopted.

Heaton, of Ohio, then called up the ordinance providing for a Code Commission—the Commission to consist of V. C. Barringer, A. W. Tourgee and W. B. Rodman, to hold their office for three years, and the General Assembly to continue their terms if it be deemed necessary. Each of the Commissioners to receive a salary of $200 per annum, while engaged in the performance of their duties, and a suitable room at the Capitol to be provided for the Commissioners as an office, and the necessary printing and stationery allowed to them.

Col. Dowd moved to amend by inserting the name of S. F. Phillips, Esq., of Wake, among the commission, and strike out that of the Tourgee. Lost.

The question recurred upon the adoption of the ordinance.

The ayes and noes were called and resulted, ayes 61, noes 28.

The report of the committee on miscellaneous provisions was taken up and passed by a party vote.

Jaybird Jones—him of the Sorrowful Figger—called up the report of the select committee on divorces, presenting an ordinance granting divorce to James Overton.

Jeemes said he had wed the lady,—
Took her in the Free Love fashion,
Took her for a while on trial;
But she would'nt mend his breeches,
She would'nt darn his stockings,
Would'nt wash the breakfast dishes,
And now she might leave him,
She was wrong and he was blameless;
That if they were divided,
She it was "dissolved the Union"—
She dissolved their "glorious Union;"
That she had no claim upon him,
Claim for maintenance or dower,
For the law of Free-love weddings,
Law of "Passional Attraction,"
Doesn't give to either party,
Claim upon the other's money.

Jones took the same view of these matrimonial infelicities that Jeemes did.

The question recurring, the divorce was granted.

Ragland, the fighting delegate of Granville, and the "lurly youth" who some times mistakes his daddy's signature for his own, moved to take up the divorce case of Mrs. Hopkins of the county of Granville.

The motion prevailed, and Mrs. Hopkins was divorced accordingly.

McDonald, candied-date for Congress in this dees-trick, called up the case of Mrs. Winny Gribbles who also wanted to change her name, and—gracious knows, we don't blame her, for Gribbles ar an orful name!

The ordinance was read and passed.

The Tourgee moved to take up an ordinance granting a divorce to Mrs. Lavina Lee.

The ordinance was read and passed. (Shouldn't wonder if the Tourgee tried to divorce us next.)

Harris, Jeemes Henry, nigger, moved to take up the case of Mrs. Todd. The ordinance divorcing Mrs. Todd was also taken up and adopted.

Several new petitions for permission "to shuffle off the mortal coil" of matrimony, were introduced and referred.

Be it ordained by the sovereign Convention, That all men in North Carolina be, and they are hereby, divorced. Nothing in this shall be construed so as to prevent any who may wish to re-marry.

Two or three more divorces were then granted.

Mann, A-la-mode, called up an ordinance to incorporate Cape Fear River Steam Boat Navigation Company.

The ordinance was taken up and passed.

EVENING PERFORMANCE.

Ready Relief Rodman, from the Committee on Relief, submitted a report, amending his former ordinance on relief, and urged its adoption as amended; also, amending Pool's ordinance to prevent the sacrifice of the property of debtors, unless it brings three-fourths of its value, and urging its passage.

Jaybird Jones opposed the report. He thought it should be put in a more compact form. He wanted it printed and laid on each member's desk.

Rodman urged the adoption of the report. He claimed that the measure had been amply discussed.

French, the gizzard-footed sutler, of Bladen, opposed, and "murd" to postpone indefinitely.

The ayes and noes were demanded and called, and resulted, ayes 17, noes 80.

The chair said that gentlemen going home now had insisted upon drawing pay up to the time fixed by the convention for adjournment.

He desired to know the sentiment of the House in the premises.

The House did'nt have any sense on the matter.

The Tourgee moved to take up the report of the committee, to which was referred the ordinance in relation to the intimidation of voters. He endeavored to elucidate the report, and moved its adoption.

Capt. Durham denounced the whole report as another rascally scheme to complete the despotism which has been inaugurated in the State.

The question recurred upon the report presented by the committee, and the ayes and noes being called upon its adoption, resulted, ayes 51, noes 15.

("A rose by any other name would smell as sweet.")

FIFTY-SECOND DAY.

MORNING PERFORMANCE.

Saturday, March 14, 1868.

Daddy Kowles came to time to-day. Ye animiles were loosed from their cages and stalked languidly about the ring, evidently jaded by their grand and lofty tumblings of yesterday.

Capt. Durham, Thoroughbred, not having the fear of Horned Cattle before his eyes, rose to a privileged question. He called for a report from the committee appointed to investigate alleged frauds in his election.

Harris, Jeemes Henry, nigger Lothario, chairman of said committee, said that a report would be made on Monday.

The special order was then taken up, being "an ordinance providing for the resolution of the public credit."

This ordinance was reported back by the committee of seventeen, to whom it had been referred, recommending its passage with amendments and changing its title, so as to read, "an ordinance providing for the payment of the interest on the public debt."

Shaker Abbott argued the passage of the ordinance, and repelled the allegation that Wall Street was interested in its passage. Nearly all the bonds were held by corporations in this State. He argued at length to show the necessity of putting State Bonds on a firm basis, in order to ensure the completion of works of Internal Improvement.

Mr. Hodnett said that he was exceedingly unwell, and therefore could not enter into any elaborate argument upon the matter. Those bonds, to which the gentleman alluded, were in the hands of parties that have not yet put them into market, and they being expended, it did not follow as the gentleman (Mr. Abbott) argued, that unless the people were taxed to pay interest on them, that the credit of the State would be lost. Almost all of the old bonds were in the hands of Northern capitalists, and he opposed the polity of taxing an impoverished people, at this time of their distress, to pay the interest on those bonds. He was no repudiator, he would never vote for or sanction repudiation of any kind of debts. But the thing he most complained of was an evident purpose, on the part of the leading men on this floor, to legislate for all men Northward, and poor old North Carolina and her interest is left completely in the back ground. Here, gentlemen, is an ordinance that proposes to tax this poor people for over a million of dollars—and for what? To fill the pockets of Northern capitalists. The ordinance says that the Legislature shall pay, in cash, the interest falling due on and after the 1st of January, 1868, upon that portion of the bonds of the State, which are dated November to May 20th, 1861. Now, how is this money to be raised, save by further grinding down our poor people? I have no doubt that, on yesterday, the Brokers on Wall street were made glad by the passage of the measure. I will warrant you that they received the news in twenty minutes after it had passed. I repeat, sir, and charge, that, in the person of some gentleman, Wall street is represented, to the detriment of our old State. What do our eyes behold every day? We see Northern men, not members of this Convention, continually in the lobbies, evidently more interested in the proceedings than one half of the delegates. Here is Mr. Tourgee—a boy, and a stranger boy at that—who has completely overturned our time-honored and revered judicial system; and how was he allowed to do it? Simply because he is allied to the Northern influence that completely rules this Convention.

Mr. Hodnett said that he felt greatly mortified that the government of his love and devotion should turn its back upon friends that had never for an instant wavered in their allegiance.

Mr. H. was going on to show other infamous features of the acts.

May, the Reverend Mistur May—a shameless old Sodomite—a snivelling—psalm-singing sanctimonious scoundrel; a foul fleecer and flayer of his own flock; a pious prurient parson who devoutly schemes the seduction of his unsuspecting female parishioners, and then solemnly returneth thanks; this lewd, lascivious lecherous old goat called Mr. H. to order, saying that his time had long since expired, and that the Reconstruction acts had nothing to do with the subject under debate.

Mr. H. thereupon took his seat.

Heaton, of Ohio, thought that Mr. Hodnett's remarks were calculated to arouse bad feelings between Yanks and Southern gentlemen.

Old Aminidab Sleek Welker said that inasmuch as they had adopted in the Bill of Rights a section assuming the old debt, it was proper the convention should make some provision for its payment.

Mr. Durham said that he had opposed the 6th section of the Bill of Rights, and he opposed this ordinance. He wished the matter to be left to the Legislature. Mr. D. wished to know if the ordinance was intended to be incorporated into the constitution.

Capt. Durham said, what binding effect will this have then? None according to the decision of Grant, Pope and Canby, unless they choose to enforce it. I protest against this measure to tax the already over burdened people. North Carolina not only owes a large debt, but nearly four millions of dollars of interest due upon the bonds. The people are not in a condition now to pay the interest upon the public debt. We can't pay the present taxes, yet you propose to levy an additional tax of over a million of dollars, annually, upon so poor a people. All such legislation must result in utterly ruining the people, who are now already on the brink of ruin. I know the importance of pushing to completion our internal improvement enterprises, but sir, I am opposed to crushing our people under a load of taxes. Even now, they are too heavy for them to bear. If either the people or the railroads one are to suffer, let the railroads suffer. Leave the matter to the people. Let the people instruct their representatives in the Legislatuae, whether or not they are now willing to assume the interest on the debt.

Gibral Abbott called the previous question, but withdrew it in order to let Candler, the Buncombe booby, make some statements, who spoke in opposition to the ordinance, and offered the following amendment: Strike out "1859" in sections 3 and 4, and insert "1871."

King, of Lenoir, moved to add to section 5 the words "the Legislature shall have power to alter, amend or repeal this ordinance."

Abbott said if the booby Candler's amendment was adopted, he would vote against the bill, at which announcement the booby was affected to tears.

Rodman, Ready Relief, spoke for some time, advocating the passage of the ordinance.

Abbott called the previous question, the call was sustained, and the question recurred upon King's amendment. The ayes and noes being called upon its passage, resulted in its defeat, by a vote of ayes 31, noes 64.

The question recurred upon Candler's amendment, and he called for the ayes and noes. They were refused, and the amendment voted down. Poor little booby!

The question recurred upon the ordinance. The ayes and noes being called, resulted as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Blume, Bryan, Carey, nigger, Carter, Cherry, nigger, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Dowd, Eppes, nigger, Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway nigger, Glover Gully, Gunter, Hall, Harris, of Wake, nigger, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, nigger, Heaton, Highsmith, nigger, Hobbs, Hollowell, Hood, nigger, Hyman, nigger, Jones, of Caldwell, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, nigger, Legg, Mann, May, Mayo, nigger, Marshall, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Murphy, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, nigger, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Read, Renfrow, Rich, Robbins, nigger, Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stillwell, Taylor, Trogden, Tucker, Williams, of Wake—65.

The hour of one o'clock having arrived, the relief question, being the special order, was taken up and considered.

The substitute offered by Mr. Graham, of Orange, for Rodman's ordinance, as amended and reported back last night by the committee on relief, which was adopted in lieu of said ordinance, was discussed.

Mr. Graham made several material amendments in his substitute.

The question recurred on the substitute as amended. The ayes and noes were called and the substitute was adopted.

On motion of Galloway, claybank monkey, the Smelfunkey adjourned until "the time in course" for the next performance.

Quotations from Eminent Copperheads.

As the Fortieth Congress, says the Montgomery Advertiser, seems determined to override the Constitution, and in the language of Thad. Stevens, to "act ontside of it," it may be well to read the following extracts:

The Constitution, which at any time exists until changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all. GEORGE WASHINGTON.

I have repeatedly laid myself under the most serious obligations to support the Constitution. I have acquired an habitual attachment to it and veneration for it. JOHN ADAMS.

The preservation of the General Government, in its whole constitutional vigor, is the sheet-anchr of our peace at home and safety abroad. THOMAS JEFFERSON.

To hold the Union of the States as the basis of their peace and happiness; to support the Constitution, which is the cement of the Union, as well in its limitations as in its authorities. JAMES MADISON.

By what means shall we contribute most to cement the Union and give the greatest support to our most excellent Constitution? JAMES MONROE.

In unfolding to my countrymen the principles by which I shall be governed in the fulfillment of those duties, my first resort will be to that Constitution which I shall swear, to the best of my ability, to preserve, protect and defend. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

The Constitution is a sacred instrument, which should be guarded with sleepless vigilance. ANDREW JOHNSON.

I shall endeavor to preserve, protect, and defend it, by anxiously referring to its provisions for direction in every action. MARTIN VAN BUREN.

Our citizens must be content with the exercise of the powers with which the Constitution clothes them. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON.

My earnest prayer shall be constantly addressed to the all-wise and all-powerful Being who made me, understandingly to carry out the principles of that Constitution. JOHN TYLER.

The Constitution itself, plainly written as it is, the safeguard of our federal compact, the offspring of concession and compromise, binding together in the bounds of peace and Union this great and increasing family of free and independent States, will be the chart by which I shall be directed. JAMES K. POLK.

My guide will be the Constitution. For the interpretation of that instrument, I shall look to the decisions of the Judicial Tribunal established by its authority. ZACHARY TAYLOR.

The Constitution will be my guide. I regard all its provisions as equally binding. MILLARD FILMORE.

Strange Hints.

Within musket shot of Willard's Hotel and the Treasury building at Washington—and so near the White House that a sharpshooter with a long-range rifle might throw a bullet through the brain of a traitor standing upon its steps—stands a modest brick building, which is as great an annoyance to President Johnson as was Mordecai the Jew to Haman of old, because it is a distinct and daily intimation that his authority is not everywhere acknowledged. There is no department of the government located there, no institution maintained at the public cost, no array of soldiers at the door or upon the premises, and yet it represents a power which keeps Andrew Johnson from forcible resistance to the laws of Congress.

The order prescribes regulations as to the election, and prohibits any person who is a candidate for office from acting as commissioner or registrar. Paragraph 15 of the order is as follows:

"Should Congress enact hereafter that at the approaching election votes shall be cast for State and other officers, the same registers and commissioners will act under this order for the election of said officers. In such event an order will issue from these headquarters notifying the qualified voters that such an election is authorized.'

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, March 14.

The action of the Senate, yesterday, in remaining over two hours in consultation and coming into open court with a prepared order after secret debate and votes, is deprecated by the managers and the President's counsel. It is argued that the real trial is taking place in secret, and that the efforts of the managers and counsel are mere show-work.

The President's counsel, yesterday, seemed perfectly disarmed after the return of the Senate and submitted to the result of its secret caucusing without much remonstrance.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, March 14.

Gen. Grant decides that the Reconstruction Acts do not authorize Military Commanders to change the election days fixed by Conventions.

The Florida Radicals here say that opposition to the convention in that State is mainly confined to the negroes.

Gen. Grant has received a dispatch from Gen. Thomas, saying in effect that the enemies of the present government are organizing for resistance to the laws and to get control of the State. G. replied, ordering Thomas to use all the force at his command to preserve peace and protect the State authorities in the execution of the laws, and to report if more troops were needed.

Persons conversant with the Senatorial feeling, say the real danger to the President has been narrowed down to the fact of appointing Thomas ad interim Secretary of War. Butler's changes stand no chance of effecting the object of their author, and the illegality of Stanton's removal is doubted by many Senators.

Joseph H. Bradley has filed his petition for a mandamus to compel the District Supreme Court to restore him to the bar.

Alexander H. Stevens is here.

The Senate was not in session to-day—in the House the whole time was consumed by speech-making.

RICHMOND, March 14.

In the Convention to-day, the section of the franchise report requiring all officers of the State to take an oath that they recognize and accept the civil and political equality of all men before the law," was adopted.

A communication was received from General Schofield, suggesting that the Convention authorize the State Treasurer to issue certificates of indebtedness to pay expenses of the constitution ratification election and the registration revision preceding it, for neither of which had Congress appropriated money. He estimates the cost at seventy-five or one hundred thousand dollars. Referred.

A general debate sprung up on money matters, during which it was stated that the public printer had not been paid for two weeks and there were no funds with which to satisfy his demands.

The Convention refused by a vote of 45 to 22, declare toat the State and county officers enumerated in the disfranchising clause are the only ones disfranchised.

Registration here closed to day. The blacks are 36 ahead on the total registration of twelve thousand.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BULLUPS CYLINDERBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BULLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from clogging than any other yet made, will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

CITY AND STATE.

Mayor's Court.

Eli Williams, colored, charged with assaulting and threatening to shoot with a gun, Elezabeth Williams, colored, was required to give bond to keep the peace and appear at the next Term of the Superior Court to answer the charge. [Eli, the blood-thirsty Ethiopian, is a turbulent drunken fellow, who neglects his business of horse-shoeing to attend Radical meetings. He was especially conspicuous when Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts harangued the negroes here, and annoyed the "old Natick Cobbler" a good deal, by his fervent responses of "That's so."—Bully for you! etc.]

Andrew Jackson, colored—who richly deserved the application (not the appellation) of "Old Hickory" well laid on—was arraigned for a violation of city ordinance, ch. 14, sec. 10, which the over curious may consult at leisure. Andrew was fined $5.

Anne Williams, belligerent free woman of color, was charged with an assault upon Nathan Perkins, colored, at the old Galon Hotel. The bellicose female was returned to the Superior Court.

Henry Jones, colored, was arrested for going into the hardware business on his own hook, by looking one skillet, one pot and one lid from Diana Williams, colored. Diana recovered the culinary utensils and went on her way rejoicing. Henry went very reluctantly to register his name at the penal institution behind the Court House, a brief sojourn in which was deemed necessary to secure his appearance at the next term of Superior Court.

The Meeting Last Night.

The meeting of the White Man's Club of the city, last night, was such a gathering as cheers and encourages us in this great struggle. The Court House was crowded to its capacity and the very best feeling prevailed. Capt. Joseph J. Davis, of Franklin, and W. M. Robbins, Esq., of Salisbury, spoke. Both speeches were in good taste, convincing and eloquent, and were calculated to do much good in behalf of our cause.

Judge Merrimon, Hon. J. R. McLean, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., Maj. Englehard, of the Wilmington Journal, and H. C. Pool, Esq., of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, and Dr. E. M. Holt, were invited to address the meeting, but declined.

The thanks of the Club were unanimously tendered Messrs. Davis and Robbins, after which the meeting adjourned.

Disclaimer.

J. Q. Bryan was reported in the Standard as having made a speech at the Black Im-publikin Bow-Wow-ery at the Court House in this city on Saturday evening, the 7th inst.

The J. Q. Bryan who figgered and niggered then and thar, was none other than the sneaking, snarling, skulking, skunk from Wilkes county. It was the red-headed "Am-nasty" Bryan or Bryan Am-nasty, Jayhawker, Bummer, Kirk-Raider, etc. Mr. J. Q. Bryan, a white man of this city, wishes it distinctly understood that he is not the J. Q. B. who figgered and niggered on that occasion.

Spiritual Aid and Comfort.

Dr. Holt, the gentlemanly delegate from Orange, is a good man—one of the best men in the Konvenshun. The Doctor is a man of decided, unchanging taste in dietary matters. He always drinks brandy—old fashioned apple brandy. We visit the Doctor daily, and consequently know what we are talking about. The Doctor visits us sometimes. He called yesterday, and as he was taking his departure from our sanctum, he shook our hand and said, in a voice as sweet as a summer's breeze sighing through a knot-hole:—"Thomas J. Reporter, accept the enclosed as a flowing tribute of my profoundest admiration" [handing us at the same time a cylindrical looking package about the size of a quart bottle,]

We squeezed his hands tenderly, and assured him we wouldst. Gracious! how we love that man. There's not words enough in all the dictionaries that ever were published, the almanacs not excepted, to express the way we feel about him.

Before we knew him, there was but one thing in this world that would make us forget its sorrows; before we met him, there was but one thing that would fill our soul with sublimity, and make us think of seraphim and cherubim; before we saw him, there was but one thing that would cause complex sighs to flow from our bosom; and before we had ever tasted his apple-jack, there was but one thing in creation that would make us weep to possess it—and that one thing, dearest reader, was—whisky straight.

Dr. Holt and his brandy have taken the whisky's place in our heart now, and they will keep it—unless some philanthropic samaritan should woo us with old Rye!

Personal.

We had the pleasure yesterday, of a visit from Maj. J. A. Engelhard, editor of the Wilmington Journal, one of the very best papers published in this country. The Major is in full health and fine spirits. His presence and his hopefulness in these gloomy days are as genial as Spring sunshine. We are glad to hear from him that the White Man's Party is wide awake in the Cape Fear region. Much of the activity and earnestness displayed by our canvassers in the Eastern counties, is attributable to the potent influence of the Wilmington Journal. It is a power in the land. May the Journal flourish like "a green bay tree" for a thousand years, and the gallant Major edit its final issue!

Book Donation.

Several Publishing Houses of New York have generously donated about two hundred volumes of miscellaneous works to the Wilmington Library Association. This liberal donation was made through Dr. C. F. Deems, Pastor of "the Church of Strangers," in the city of New York.

The Wilmington Star says that "the Association will make a detailed public acknowledgement" of this favor shortly.

What a pity that there is not enough of literary taste, sympathy and association here, to establish a first class Metropolitan Library—one that would be an honor to the State and a blessing to the community.

Such an institution should have been founded long ago.

The State Library here, is not accessible to all, nor should it be. It is deficient too in most of the elements of a popular library. Many of our citizens would doubtless be willing to contribute liberally even in these "hard times," to the creation of a Library fund. Let the young people here, who are fond of books, bestir themselves, form a Library association and appeal to the reading public for its endowment, and our word for it, Raleigh will soon have a Library to be proud of—a source of light, of profit, and of pleasure to all.

The Right Spirit.

We learn that responding to the suggestion of a Virginia merchant, large numbers of citizens on or near the different railroad lines in this vicinity, are engaged in manufacture of barrels and getting staves. The profits from these pursuits for the principals are represented to be large and at the same time the employees receive very fair wages for their labor. Both articles sell well and readily at Portsmouth, Norfolk and Wilmington, and we are glad to see these new channels of labor opened to idle hands. Every section of North Carolina abounds with fine timber and we hope the day is not distant when it will be made to yield large sums of money annually. The fact is, that no other course promises such speedy release from financial embarrassment to our people, as the turning of their attention to the elements of wealth about them at home.

Revival of the Militia.

If the new Constitution should be accepted by the people, the old militia will be revived. We have no apprehension that the work of the Gorillas is to find favor with a majority of the people, and yet it will not be premature preparation if white-skin Republicans procure muskets, copies of Scott's tactics, and proceed at once to acquaint themselves with the duties of a recruit. The prospective nigger officers will expect of their subordinates a certain degree of proficiency, and it will be too bad if ignorance of company and regimental movements, or the manual of arms, should necessitate the putting of pale faces in the "awkward squad," in the presence of wives and children. Let white-livered amalgamationists, therefore, qualify themselves for the duties of privates.

Complimentary.

Col. Lotte W. Humphrey, of Wayne county, has been suggested as a suitable candidate to represent the district composed of the counties of Greene and Wayne, in the State Senate. Noticing this nomination, the Wilmington Journal pays the following compliment to Col. Humphrey, which we heartily endorse:—"Col. H. is a gentleman of decided ability, exalted private character, and a legislator of much experience, and his election to the position designated would bring to the councils of the State one of her most useful and patriotic sons."

Bankruptcy.

The following parties have filed petitions in bankruptcy since our last issue: John H. Anderson, of New Hanover; Elisha Calbert, of Craven; Calvin Perry, of Craven; John C. Rankin, of Rockingham; John W. Farish, of Chatham; J. H. Hampton, of Granville; J. Leathers, of Orange; J. G. Lockhart, of Northampton, and W. G. Harriss, of Chatham.

Moore Right Side Up.

We hear that a thorough political revolution is progressing in Moore county. White men who have been seduced into the "so-called" Union Leagues, are forsaking them in disgust, and forswearing all further affiliation with the vile propagandists of negro equality. They are determined now to maintain the supremacy of the white race, and to vote against the odious—infamous constitution that would put white militia under negro officers, and send their children to negro schools.

The Wilmington Star says that S. S. McDonald, delegate to the Gorilla convention from Moore county, would not "black the boards" should he become a candidate again. We think the Star is mistaken just at this point. He would black it if he made any score at all. A white-faced, lilly-livered representative of nigger voters, making a nigger constitution for the government of white men, would black even a black-board all over, if he even touched it. "Not black the board!" Why, sir, he'd black even the gable end of h—ll itself!

Mr. John Taggert, Jr., of Mecklenburg, was robbed on a public road in that county, on Wednesday night last. He was knocked down by a negro and had his pockets rifled.

Mr. Jacob McCotter, of Greene county, was murdered on Wednesday last, near Little Swift Creek.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW AND DESPAIR NOT.

Wilson County, Sept. 10, 1867.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, Sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir.—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

Dr. Deems' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumption. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.
Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to Billup's Centreboard Cotton Scraper, and to Billup's Dixie Plow. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
